Beneficiary Designation Form

Basic Life Insurance
Supplemental Life Insurance

Please read the instructions below in order to complete the attached form properly. If you have any questions about making a beneficiary designation, call Human Resources at 305-673-7524.

You Must Complete this Form

1. When required by the City due to changes in the plan or the plan carrier.
2. Any time you want to make a change to your beneficiary designation.

Who May You Name as Your Beneficiary

You may name any one or any number of people as primary and/or secondary beneficiaries. Your named beneficiary may include you spouse, domestic partner, children, parents, siblings, other family members or friends, etc.

Beneficiary Guidelines:

- A primary beneficiary is a person named by you to receive the payment of your Basic Life Insurance and/or Supplemental Life Insurance benefits in the event of your death.
- A secondary beneficiary is an alternate beneficiary named by you to receive the payment of your Basic Life Insurance and/or Supplemental Life Insurance benefits in the event that all named primary beneficiaries dies before you. If no primary beneficiary survives you, and no secondary beneficiary is named, payment will be made in accordance with the plan.

How to Complete This Form

1. About You – complete all the information
2. Beneficiary Information –
  - a. All beneficiary designations must be typed or legibly written in ink.
  - b. The beneficiary's name must always be shown in full and the relationship to you must be stated.
  - c. If the beneficiary designated is not related to you, the relationship to you should be listed as "non-relative".
  - d. The beneficiary section should not contain any corrections or crossed-out words.
  - e. The beneficiary designation should be specific. It should not include wording such as "either/or" or "and/or".
  - f. Naming a primary or secondary beneficiary: Be sure to include the beneficiary's full name, relationship to you, Social Security Number, address, date of birth and sex.
  - g. If more than one beneficiary is named, you must indicate the percentage, in whole amounts, of the benefit payable to each beneficiary. Fractional percentages such as 33⅓% are not acceptable. These percentages must total 100%.
  - h. Naming a Trust – You must include:
    - The Trust's name and address
    - The date of the Trust
    - The Trustee's name
  - i. Naming an estate: You may name your estate as your beneficiary by completing the form with the words "My Estate". If so, the executor of your will or administrator of your estate will be required to provide letters of appointment issued by the court when a claim is filed. Please consult your attorney if you are considering naming your estate as beneficiary.
3. Your Signature – without your signature, the Beneficiary Designation Form cannot be processed.

I designate the above-named person(s) as my primary and/or secondary beneficiary(ies) to my Basic Life and Supplemental Life plans. I understand if one of my primary beneficiaries is no longer living when the benefit is paid, the amount will be divided equally among any remaining primary beneficiaries. I also understand no amount will be paid to a secondary beneficiary as long as any of my primary beneficiaries are living. I reserve the right to revoke this designation at any time by submitting a new Beneficiary Designation Form. Information provided here shall replace all previous beneficiary designations I have made.
